Excellent Career Opportunities in Financial Technology & Services for Software Talent!

Euronet Worldwide (www.euronetworldwide.com, NASDAQ: EEFT), is one of the leading global financial technology solutions and payments providers with the mission:

"To make access to payments convenient and affordable for global consumers".

Euronet Software Solutions seek to employ competent Software Talent who will work on the design and development of cutting-edge real-time payments systems joining our highly qualified product development teams. Learn more about our software products suite here.

The successful candidates will be based in Athens or Belgrade or have the opportunity to join our European Development Center in Germany (Munich). They must demonstrate strong technical and programming skills, gained through a minimum of 3 years proven experience.

Current openings include:

Software Test Engineers

Job Type: Full-time, permanent

Your daily activities:

- Understand business requirements and conduct functional testing, system testing and load testing for the product features.
- Manage Regression Testing with respect to internal/external customers.
- Build and maintain shared testing environment (servers, software, test data).
- Build and maintain test scripts.
- Maintain automated and on demand test runs and validation of results.
- Consult and assist developers in building their personal test environments, test cases and test data.
- Create a traceability matrix/test case plan documents.
- Cooperate with the professional QA teams on splitting responsibilities, best practices and process improvements.
- Support development teams in introducing best practices in Software Testing.
- Tracking the testing activities with the team and provide the status on daily/weekly basis.

What you need to be successful:

- Understanding of business requirements and conducting functional testing, system testing and load testing for the product features.
- Managing Regression Testing with respect to internal/external customers.
- Building and maintaining test scripts and shared testing environment (servers, software, test data).
- Experience in any scripting language like shell, batch, JavaScript, XSLT.
- Supporting the development teams in introducing best practices in Software Testing.

General requirements include:

- Excellent problem solving skills.
- Willingness to learn.
- Team spirit.
- Very good knowledge of English (oral and writing skills).

Our assessment process includes a number of interviews and technical tests.

Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.

If you think you fit the profile described and you are interested in the position, please send your CV and cover letter to Vana Mechleri (vmechleri@euronetworldwide.com).